

Visiting Nottingham Central Library

Address: 1 Carrington Street, Nottingham NG1 7FH

By Car

Nottingham Central Library is situated on the Broad Marsh site, above the bus station. You can access the Broad Marsh car park (NG1 7EJ), which has 1200+ spaces and charging points for electric vehicles throughout the building. Tariffs start from £5 for two hours, with an early bird offer of £6 for those who arrive before 9.30am and leave before 6.30pm. Other options are the Castle Car Park (NG1 7HG) and Maid Marian Way (NG1 6AE). Both the Broad Marsh car park and Maid Marian Way have disabled-friendly spaces.

By Park & Ride/Tram

All tram lines go through Nottingham Station which is the closest tram stop to the library. Visit thetram.net/park-and-ride for details of the different park & ride stops. Please note that all these sites offer disabled-friendly and parent & child spaces. Please board either the Phoenix Park or Hucknall line if you are boarding at Clifton South or Toton Lane. If you are boarding at The Forest, Hucknall, Moor Bridge, Wilkinson Street or Phoenix Park, please board the Clifton South or Toton Lane lines. Please see here for ticket prices.
thetram.net/tickets/one-off-tickets

By Bike

You can park your bike at Nottingham Station (NG2 3AQ). You will need an access card (transportnottingham.com/cycling/park-your-bike/)

By Bus

Nottingham City Transport offers a wide variety of bus routes that go to the Nottingham Central Library. Please use the website nctx.co.uk/plan-a-journey/journey-planner to work out the route you need.